-  1 UN-AU-RECs/RMs "Desk-to-Desk" meeting

COMMITMENTS

-  The Secretary-General and the Chairperson of the AU Commission signed a Declaration committing to further institutionalizing the coordination mechanisms.
-  The UN provided technical assistance to the AU on: children and armed conflict; civil-military cooperation; climate, peace and security; disarmament, demobilization and reintegration; and security sector reform.
-  The UN and the AU developed key modalities on joint planning, mission support, and compliance and protection of civilians for the operationalization of resolution 2719 (2023).
-  The UN provided support and expert advice to the AU and regional peace operations, particularly AUSSOM and MNJTF, and the operationalization of the African Standby Force.
-  The UN and the AU piloted the Synergy Training for AU-UN Resources to build skills on support functions in joint operations.
-  The UN supported the launch of the AU Women, Peace and Security Network for Media Professionals.
-  The UN facilitated over 35 training programmes on international humanitarian and human rights law, conduct and discipline, sexual exploitation and abuse investigations, and civilian protection.
-  The UN and the AU strengthened cooperation on counter-terrorism and prevention of violent extremism.
-  The AU Compliance and Accountability Framework project completed its first iteration.

LIBYA

The UN continued to advance the implementation of the UNSMIL roadmap toward national elections and institutional reunification and supported AU efforts on national reconciliation in Libya.

SAHEL

The AU and the UN enhanced coordination with regional actors.

SOUTH SUDAN

The UN, the AU and IGAD worked towards a genuine reset of the political process in line with the peace agreement, amid political tensions and escalating security incidents.

DEMOCRATIC REPUBLIC OF THE CONGO

The UN continued to provide technical assistance to the AU-led mediation process, amid continued fighting despite the parties' signing of a ceasefire and regional tensions.

"Member States must ensure that our organizations are empowered to fulfil the objectives of both United Nations-led and the African Union-led peace operations, including those set out in resolution 2719 (2023)."

Secretary-General António Guterres

SUDAN

The Quintet, comprising the AU, EU, IGAD, LAS and UN, strengthened their engagement in support of progress towards an inclusive Sudanese-led civilian dialogue and future political process.

SOMALIA

The UN and the AU coordinated support to Somalia's national priorities, including the security transition. They reprioritized resources following UNSOS 25 per cent expenditure reduction. The UN supported AUSSOM resource mobilization efforts.

MADAGASCAR

The UN and the AU continued consultations and planned a joint visit to the country to urge the implementation of the 2025-2027 transition plan.

AUSSOM: AU Support and Stabilization Mission in Somalia; EU: European Union; IGAD: Intergovernmental Authority on Development; LAS: League of Arab States; RECs/RMs: regional economic communities and regional mechanisms.

The boundaries and names shown and the designations used on this map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations. Final boundary between the Republic of Sudan and the Republic of South Sudan has not yet been determined.
